Finance 101 for IR

One day program, New York, NY

This course starts from scratch, showing you how the income statement and balance sheet build up and demonstrates the importance of cash using the FinanceTalking accounting game. Team quizzes help you with financial jargon. And you'll learn to implement what you've learned after the course – ensuring that you return in a position to carry out your duties even more effectively.

Program:

- Introduction to Accounts
- Earnings Releases and Annual Reports/10-K
- Profitability
- Balance Sheets & Funding
- Summary and Conclusion

Outcomes:

- Understand the income statement, balance sheet and cash flows
- Identify the earnings release headlines and why certain numbers are important
- Learn accounting jargon and financial language
- Use the numbers to tell your company's financial story.
